SLOVENIA

Slovenia is a fascinating central European country lying halfway between Venice and Vienna that charms visitors with its beautiful landscapes, excellent cuisine and friendly locals. Its attractions ranging from imposing mountains, forests, lakes and rivers, the charming capital Ljubljana and mysterious underground caves to a stretch of the sunny Mediterranean coast and a fascinating slower-paced countryside, are all packed into a small area, making it easy to experience its rich diversity in a relatively short time.

Slovenia is easily accessible by road, rail and air. Ljubljana International Airport is served by daily flights from major European hubs including London, Paris, Frankfurt, Munich, Brussels and Zurich.

LAKE BLEĐ

Picture-perfect Lake Bled is Slovenia's flagship attraction. It boasts a crystal-clear lake with an idyllic island in its midst, overlooked by a mysterious cliff-top castle and surrounded by towering Alpine peaks.

Traditional wooden boats glide across its waters while visitors admire its natural beauty from the stone walls of the oldest castle in Slovenia. Bled is a resort with a longstanding hospitality tradition which offers an array of accommodation options ranging from the traditional to the luxurious, as well as many restaurants where guests can enjoy delicious local dishes with a modern twist. The town, located not far from a motorway and a mere 30 minutes' drive from Ljubljana Airport, has been an active feature of the world's conference map for three decades, playing host to medium-sized corporate, association and governmental meetings, as well as top-end sport events.

BLED CASTLE special venue

History with a view
to inspire

The mighty Bled Castle, the oldest of its kind in Slovenia, overlooks Lake Bled from a unique position atop a natural rock face 130 metres above the lake. Stunning vistas open up from its terraces, making the castle a very attractive venue for receptions and banquets. The castle restaurant is renowned for its excellent cuisine and impeccable service and offers Slovenian gastronomic delights with an international twist.

The fascinating castle's historical contents include a printing works, museum, wine cellar, chapel and a number of temporary and permanent exhibitions, which can be the backdrop for a fun and inspiring teambuilding programme. You may also select one of the castle halls to arrange a business meeting in its historic ambience or hold an event in the green park just outside the castle gates.

There is a footpath leading to the castle from the very heart of Bled, while guests can also be taken to the car park atop the castle hill by car, coach or even horse-drawn carriage.
